Students Perspective

Describe some expected benefits from attending the IAFS

- Harmonization of curricula contents following talks with peers from partner countries.
- Improving language skills, be in contact with other points of view and with new cultures
- Have access to point of views, and different cultures and improve the English.
- Getting to know the organizational culture of our partners to stablish a closer cooperation in the future.
- More engagement with other cultures, costumes, climate and ways of working.
- Improve our knowledge about subjects that will be important for out future career.
- In my opinion a great benefit from attending the IAFS was the opportunity to learn from people from different countries and see their perspective in some of the subjects that were discussed during the sessions as well as studying subjects using the universal language which will be a great help for our future
- It is important for sharing experiences and cultures and learning new things like for example the way of working of other military forces
- Learning opportunities from other methods and cultures
- Increase the level of English

Instructors Perspective

THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE IAFS WILL PROMOTE

1	Strongly disagree
2	Disagree
3	Neutral
4	Agree
5	Strongly agree

- Closer cooperation among the participating Institutions
- Long-term mobility for students and instructors
- English language efficiency for students and instructors
- Cultural awareness capability via the familiarization of participants with different cultures
- Harmonization of the Basic Air Force Officer Education for participating institutions
- Interchange of teaching styles and methodology among subject matter experts
- Consolidation of educational best practices in the field of aeronautical studies

Describe some expected benefits from attending the IAFS for instructors

- Possibility of standardization (at different levels) of training within the air force academies
- Opportunity to get to know new cultures and the challenge of adapting the teaching method to students with different backgrounds
- Teaching staff mobility will help to improve English fluency and level. It is also an opportunity to meet other teachers and create a network that can be useful for research and development activities. The IAFS will promote the share of teaching materials and methodologies, contributing to increase the overall teaching quality.
- Improvements in teaching methodologies. Interaction with teaching staff and cadets from other military Academies. Motivation for nationalisation.
- 1. You'll become a better instructor. 2. You learn about other cultures. 3. You'll make new friends. 4. Combine work and holidays.
- effective exchanges of teaching materials and how to teach courses.
- As mentioned before: - learn and experience new forms of lecturing and teaching; - learn foreign culture - learn from experts - experience and understand different ways of lecturing and organizing an academic syllabus.
- The greatest benefit is the exchange of ideas with peers from the other institutions and the harmonization of the course contents.
- expand professional network
- Harmonization and adjustment of curricula and teaching materials.
- By attending the IAFS, instructors might be able to bring some expertise, new subjects or topics to develop in their own countries, making the respective syllabus better
