

Common Module “Electronic Warfare”

Organized in Athens, Greece.

from the 8th to 12th April 2024.

ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION

1. Participation

The Common Module is open to cadets, students, and young military officers with foundational knowledge of Electronic Warfare, its principles, and practices. Proficiency in English is required at CEFR Level B1 or NATO STANAG Level 2.

2. Transportation

The Hellenic Army Academy will provide complimentary transportation from Athens International Airport to the university and back. Participants are requested to arrive on the 7th of April and depart on the 13th of April.

3. Accommodation

The Hellenic Army Academy will offer free housing for participating military international cadets.

4. Meals

Three meals per day and coffee breaks will be provided free of charge at the University's canteen.

6. Dress Code

Arrival/Departure: Casual

Opening Ceremony/Closing Ceremony: Combat Uniform (Business Casual for Civilians)

Course Sessions: Combat Uniform (Business Casual for Civilians)

7. Course Fee

The course is free of charge.

8. Registration Process

Participants are requested to register by submitting the attached application form to the Point of Contact (POC) no later than the 8th of March 2024. Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis.

9. Point of Contact (POC)

Christos Tamouridis

CPT, AV

International Cooperation Office

Hellenic Army Academy

Tel: +30 6907563584

Katerina Keskinidou

Civilian Personnel

International Cooperation Office

Hellenic Army Academy

Email: erasmus@sse.gr

Tel: (+30) 210 8904198