

John Hannan, CD

John joined the International Forum for Peace, Security & Prosperity (IFPSP) in October 2020, and he is responsible for the International Partnership effort. He has the responsibility to identify, research and contact partners and participants to the IFPSP from around the world; particularly Military Colleges and Universities.

John has spent over thirty years in operational excellence consulting services. He was the chief operating partner for the European office of his last firm for over five years; operating out of Milan. He has operated as an independent consultant since 2018. Prior to his consultancy career, John was an Infantry Officer with the Canadian Armed Forces (CAF) for over 10 years, retiring in the rank of Captain. He has recently re-enrolled in the CAF in 2019 as a Cadet Instructor Lieutenant.

John holds a B.A. in International Relations from Concordia University in Montreal, Canada. He has also earned his professional designation as a Chef-Cuisiner, and Chef-Pâtissier from the ITHQ in Montreal, as well as a professional Pizzaiolo diploma from La Scuola Professionale dei Pizzaioli in Bojano, Italy.

John is married with two adult daughters and lives in Kirkland, QC.
