

EUMACS Syndicate 4

13 October 2022

④ Influence of Ukrainian War on Cadet Education Military Universities

- 1) education of traditional military disciplines in the regard to high intensity conventional conflict of the 21st century
- 2) reflection of new battlefield phenomena during lectures
- 3) the context of European hybrid warfare in education process

Discussion Goal

- to discuss and identify joint point of view/s on the UA-RF war impact on military education
- to formulate proposal for next steps and possible tasks to elaborate this topic

④ Influence of Ukrainian War on Cadet Education Military Universities

1) education of traditional military disciplines in the regard to high intensity conventional conflict of the 21st century:

- lessons learned from the conflict/s
- concept of joint forces deployment
- wider multinational cooperation in development of theoretical background and practical training

④ Influence of Ukrainian War on Cadet Education Military Universities

2) reflection of new battlefield phenomena during lectures:

- reflection of land warfare
- implications of new technologies
- development of critical thinking competence
- challenges of social media use by military students

④ Influence of Ukrainian War on Cadet Education Military Universities

3) the context of European hybrid warfare
in education process:

- hybrid warfare context
- rapid transformation of knowledge and experiences from the battlefield into education/training
- education methodologies

Findings and Proposals

- proposals:
 - in 2023 to prepare a plan of joint activities (syndicate iMAF)
 - improve lessons learned for teachers
 - improve students motivation
 - to conventional warfare with new technological applications
 - to develop the teaching base of hybrid warfare
 - to organize expert/teachers workshops to share best practices

Findings and Proposals

(3) context of European hybrid warfare
in education process:

EUMACS

13 October 2022

