

Name of the event	Study visit to the city of Kraków
Institution, which organised the event	General Tadeusz Kościuszko Military University of Land Forces (AWL)
Country of the organiser	Poland
Year of the event	2025
Date of the event (from-to)	2025 05 07 – 2025 05 09
Name(s) of the author(s)	KARBOWIAK Danuta, MA
Authors' institution	General Tadeusz Kościuszko Military University of Land Forces (AWL)
Authors' country	Poland

On May 7-9, 2025, cadets and civilian students from foreign partner universities, who are doing the International Semester at the General Tadeusz Kościuszko Military University of Land Forces within the framework of the Erasmus+ program, went on a study visit to the city of Kraków.

Picture 1: Participants in front of the Dragon of Wawel Hill.
Photo: Danuta KARBOWIAK

The trip included visiting the Wieliczka Salt Mine and the most important sights and monuments of Kraków, such as: the Dragon of the Wawel Hill, the Wawel Royal Castle, the Wawel Royal Cathedral, the Church of St. Andrew, the Bishop's Palace, the Cloth Hall, the Town Hall Tower, St. Mary's Basilica, and the Church of St. Adalbert. On the last day of the trip, the participants visited the Srebrna Góra Fortress.

Picture 2: Group photo in the Wieliczka Salt Mine
Photo: Danuta KARBOWIAK

Picture 3: The Wieliczka Salt Mine
Photo: Danuta KARBOWIAK

Picture 4: The Wieliczka Salt Mine
Photo: Danuta KARBOWIAK

Study visits are carried out as part of the Cultural Program, which is organized by the Career and Erasmus Programme Office. The aim of the Program is to familiarize cadets and students from foreign partner universities with Polish history, culture and traditions.

Picture 5: Participants in the the Srebrna Góra Fortress
Photo: Danuta KARBOWIAK