On April 27-28, students participating in the International Semester program at the General Tadeusz Kościuszko Military University of Land Forces (AWL) took part in a study visit to Kraków and Oświęcim. The program included visits to several of Poland's most historically significant sites, including the Kościuszko Mound, the concentration and extermination camps Auschwitz and Auschwitz II-Birkenau, as well as Lesser Poland voivodship's most important landmarks, including Wawel Castle, the Old Town, and the Cloth Hall.
