

“Henri Coandă” Air Force Academy, Brasov, Romania

COMMON MODULE: Gender Perspectives in Security and Defence (07.04-11.04.2025)

SHORT INFORMATION

"Henri Coandă" Air Force Academy hosted the 4th edition of the International Common module "Gender Perspectives in Security and Defence" from April 7–11, 2025.

During this week, specialists from Romania and Europe have gathered to discuss the role of gender perspective in the field of security and defense.

The topics covered include:

- Gender equality in the military
- Harassment and diversity
- Sexual violence in conflicts
- Best practices in international missions
- UN and EU strategies on women, peace, and security.

There have been interactive sessions, role-playing games, case study presentations, and applied discussions with experts in the field.

An important step towards a more inclusive military environment, more aware of the importance of diversity!

GROUP PHOTO

