43rd Athens Authentic Marathon

02-08 November 2026

«Running the history – Writing our own»

Hellenic Army Academy – Marathon Team

Where History Meets Valor

In 490 BC, the Athenian Hoplite Pheidippides ran 42 km from Marathon to Athens to announce victory over the Persians. That legendary run inspired the modern marathon and the 1896 Olympic Games. Today, the Athens Authentic Marathon retraces this original route, finishing inside the iconic Panathenaic Stadium.

The Hellenic Army Academy's Role

The HAA proudly invites international military cadets to participate as part of the Common Module “Battle Physical, Mental, and Survival Training” — a BIP awarding 3 ECTS, eligible for Erasmus+ funding. Free accommodation and meals at Academy facilities, plus airport transportation, are provided for all international participants.

More than a race. A symbol of courage. A legacy to remember.
