Participation in CM “SMALL UNIT TACTICS”, Hellenic Army Academy, GR

- ✓ Winter Military Leadership Training Program focused on Small Unit Tactics

Highlights

- Learned about Greek military education system and culture
- Gained experience representing Lithuania abroad
- Improved communication skills
- Professional contacts with cadets from other countries

Benefits

- Increased confidence in using English professionally during field training
- Increased adaptability in new environments
- Expanded network with foreign cadets and officers
- Gained broader understanding of international military education systems
- Strengthened discipline and responsibility in multinational tasks.

Recommendations

- Other institutions should be encouraged to organize similar courses in the future, hosted in different countries and different cultural environments.
- Cadets and personnel should be sent more frequently to similar modules to broaden professional experience and learn different training methods.
- The duration of the course could be extended, as a short timeframe does not always allow participants to fully achieve the training objectives or absorb all the material.
