Dear Commandants, Dear Rectors,

"Nicolae Bălcescu" Land Forces Academy of Sibiu is pleased to invite you to the first edition of the common module European Values, which will take place from 08th to 12th December 2025.

This module is designed to raise awareness of the fundamental values of the European Union, emphasizing their significance in both personal and professional life, across national and international contexts. Upon successful completion, participants will be awarded 2 ECTS credits.

We warmly invite students to take part in this engaging academic experience, where they will collaborate with peers from our academy and partner institutions to develop creative and critical problem-solving strategies to deepen their understanding and knowledge about fundamental European values and their importance within the European Union and European society in general.

The Land Forces Academy will provide free accommodation and meals for the duration of the module. Please note that sending institutions are responsible for covering travel expenses to and from Sibiu.

There is no participation fee. All EU participants are required to carry a valid European Health Insurance Card or alternative health/travel insurance.

The registration deadline is 31st of October 2025. Kindly submit the completed Registration Form (attached) to: international.relations@armyacademy.ro (POC: Assoc. Prof. Isabela-Anda DRAGOMIR, PhD).

Further details, including a brief description of the module and logistical information, are enclosed.

We look forward to welcoming your students to Sibiu and to our academy!

Sincerely,

Colonel Dumitru TODOSIUC

Commandant (Rector) of "Nicolae Bălcescu" Land Forces Academy of Sibiu
