

ANNEX B

Administrative and Logistics Information

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

From the 9th to the 11th of June 2026, academic staff, military instructors, and researchers are invited to the Leadership Seminar hosted by the Academia General Militar \(AGM\) and CUD Zaragoza. The event will focus on leadership education within the EMILYO framework.

The organizers do not cover travel and/or accommodation costs.

In order to fund your stay in Spain as an Erasmus staff mobility, your institution will need an Inter-Institutional Agreement (IIA) with the Centro Universitario de la Defensa (Erasmus ID: E ZARAGOZ61). We would be pleased to sign an agreement, should one not already be in place. Please contact your Erasmus Coordinator for further information.

Our Erasmus Coordinator's POC is:

Mr. Andy Tunnicliffe

Zaragoza Airport offers a limited number of flights; therefore, traveling via Madrid or Barcelona, both approximately 300 km from Zaragoza, is the most convenient option. Once you arrive in Barcelona or Madrid, you can take a high-speed train from there. Train tickets can be purchased on the following operators' websites:

- RENFE: <https://www.renfe.com/es/en>
- IRYO: <https://iryo.eu/en/home>
- OUIGO: <https://www.ouigo.com/es/en>

To travel from Madrid or Barcelona airports to the train station, seminar participants may take a taxi (approximately €35) or public transport (bus, metro, or commuter train; approximately €5). High-speed train tickets purchased with RENFE and IRYO include a commuter train ticket. To access the platforms, simply scan the QR code on your ticket at the barrier.

No transfers to or from Zaragoza Train Station or Airport and the hotel will be provided by the organization.

The most convenient options from the airport are to take a taxi (approximately €30) or a bus (approximately €4.5)<sup>3</sup>.
