

“CAROL I”
NATIONAL DEFENCE UNIVERSITY
BUCHAREST - ROMANIA

INVITATION

Dear Commandants (Rectors),

“Carol I” National Defence University of Bucharest, is privileged to host the Common Module “Common Security and Defence Policy” from October 26th to October 30th, 2026, under the framework of the European Initiative for the Exchange of Young Officers, inspired by ERASMUS (EMILYO).

In this context, we extend a cordial invitation for your students to take part in a week of immersive theoretical and practical training, alongside counterparts from various EU member states. The program aims to enrich their educational profile by providing the young participants a comprehensive understanding of the European Union’s role in security and defence. Through interactive learning, simulations, and dialogue with experts, participants are expected to develop critical thinking, intercultural awareness, and leadership skills, having the possibility to contribute to informed discussions and active engagement in European security, resilience, and democratic values.

This learning experience is envisioned not only as a platform for educational enrichment, but also as a catalyst for forging new avenues of collaboration, fostering enhanced educational and training interoperability. Beyond the academic realm, participants will have the opportunity to explore the cultural heritage of Bucharest and its key tourist attractions.

A comprehensive overview of the course details is provided in the administrative documents.

Looking forward to welcoming your cadets,

Respectfully,

Major General Eugen Mavris
Commandant (Rector) of “Carol I” National Defence University
