Student mobility:

We invite your institution to nominate military cadets and civilian students who have completed at least one year of higher education, have a basic understanding of technical systems for defence and security, and have English proficiency at CEFR level B1 or NATO STANAG level 2. There is no course fee. The Academy provides free on-campus accommodation for military cadets and provides meals for those staying on campus.

Staff teaching mobility:

We invite your lecturers and instructors to contribute through Erasmus+ staff mobility for teaching (Erasmus+ STA), with visits of two to five days. Colleagues interested in taking part are invited to indicate their preferred module, proposed teaching topic and dates.

Student applications should be submitted to the point of contact below using the application form by 11 December 2026. Places are allocated on a first-come, first-served basis. Learning Agreements must be signed before 15 January 2027.

For practical arrangements, please refer to the attached Administrative Information and the International Technical Semester webpage.

We look forward to welcoming your students and teaching staff to Bucharest.

Yours faithfully,

VICE-RECTOR FOR INTERUNIVERSITY RELATIONS
Colonel (AF) Prof. Eng. PhD.
