BLENDED INTENSIVE PROGRAMME (BIP) – MILITARY CLOSE COMBAT COURSE

organized by the Armed Forces Academy of General Milan Rastislav Štefánik, Liptovský Mikuláš, Slovakia

January 18 - 22, 2027

INTRODUCTION

The Armed Forces Academy of General Milan Rastislav Štefánik is pleased to host the Blended Intensive Programme (BIP) – Military Close Combat Course, combining virtual learning and physical mobility. The course focuses on developing practical close combat skills required in modern military operations. Training emphasizes unarmed combat, ground fighting, knife defence and offense, combat with short and long weapons and realistic combat scenarios under stress conditions.

GENERAL INFORMATION AND REQUIREMENTS

The Military Close Combat Course is an international one-week intensive training course designed for cadets from military educational institutions. Course participants are required to have already learnt the basics of combative fighting, which they will be able to further develop during the course, in particular competence in basic striking, kicking and blocking techniques. Participants should be in excellent physical fitness and able to safely complete intensive physical training under stressful conditions.

- ⇒ Military educational institutions can send 2 participants. Observers are also welcomed.
- ⇒ There is a limited capacity of a maximum of 20 participants so registrations will be dealt with on first come first serve basis.
- ⇒ Participants are encouraged to bring their country flags
- ⇒ NO ENTRY FEE.

The activity will be organized as a Blended Intensive Programme (BIP) and will award 3 ECTS credits. (BIP ID - 2026-1-SK01-KA131-HED-000413886-2)

Mandatory Online Component of the BIP (December 7-18, 2027)

As part of the Blended Intensive Programme (BIP), all participants are required to complete the mandatory online component of the Military Close Combat Course 2027 before the physical mobility.

Participants will receive access to the MS Teams – Google Forms, where they will have access to study materials, instructional videos, and assessments.

The online component will include:

- ⇒ Course introduction – presentation of course objectives, programme, organization, and completion requirements;
- ⇒ Safety training – safety procedures for military close combat, handling training weapons, and movement in mountainous terrain under winter conditions;
- ⇒ Theoretical fundamentals of unarmed combat – combat stance, movement, strikes, kicks, defensive techniques, falls, throws, and ground fighting;
- ⇒ Theoretical fundamentals of armed combat – basic principles of close combat involving knives, handguns, and rifles;
- ⇒ Mandatory physical and technical entry assessment – participants must record a video demonstrating prescribed exercises and submit it via MS Teams. Successful completion is a prerequisite for participation in the physical component,
- ⇒ Final knowledge assessment – an online test covering the theoretical topics and safety procedures.

Detailed information regarding the MS Teams – Google Forms access, video submission requirements, and assessment criteria will be provided after registration.
The successful completion of both the online and the physical components is required for the award of 3 ECTS credits.

ACCOMMODATION AND MEALS

⇒ Accommodation and meals will be provided to al cadets free of charge. Participants will be accommodated at the AFA facilities.

⇒ Observers are recommended to book their stay at the nearby B&B or hotels – financial costs are up to sending organization. They can pre-order lunches at the Academy Mess Hall for about 6,00 EUR per lunch. Meal Order Form will be sent to observers about 2 weeks before the activity. Payments will then be collected on Monday in CASH. It is not possible to change the order during the week of the activity! (Note: If this option does not suit the observers, the POC can recommend nearby restaurants.)
